Dear Ms. Hancock,

Thank you for having Mrs. Nageli's class at the Kersen House. I was very fascinated about the facts of the house, like how archeologist found one of two bodkins, in New York, in the house. Thank you again for this learning experience.

Gratefully,
Miguel Pockitt

Dear Mr. Hancock, June 22

I enjoyed going to the Matthews Purser House & didn't like leaving.
I did enjoy spying through the holes in the walls.
I learned that if you put a shoe in the rafters
it will supposedly ward off evil. I want to see what the basement looks like.

~~So~~ Thankyou
