

Page 1 (Top)

An Agreement made betweene Richard Nicolls, Esqre, Governor under his Royal Highnesse, the Duke of Yorke, and the Sachems and People called the Sopes Indyans.

1. That no Act of Hostility shall at any time bee committed on either part, or if any damage shall happen to bee done by either Party, to the Corne, Cattle, Horses, Hoggs, Houses, or any other Goods whatsoever, of the other Party, full satisfacion shall be given upon demand for the same.

2. That if any Christian shall wilfully kill an Indyan, or any Indyan a Christian, hee shall bee put to death, And the said Sachems do promise on their parts to bring any such Indyan to ye Officer in Cheife at the Sopes, to receive his punishment there.

3. That a convenient House shall bee built where the said Indyans may at any time Lodge without the Ports of the said Towne, in which House ye Indyans are to leave their Armes, and may

Page 1 (bottom)

(come)

Margin Note: Received the Records in the Court of Sessions, of Sarah Rosecranse, the 3rd October, 1722.