

by 2 witnesses, Witnesses say having heard her master say : "Where you are during the day, go there also at night."

Contra

defendant Juriaen Westgaet says the same what the witnesses say. Agrees.

After having heard both parties Juriaen Westgaet is sentenced to pay one quarter of her annual wages to Gritjen Hillebrantsen.

Complainant Jan Jansen Van Eyckelen demands receipt and liquidation of the balance of the debt. The complainant testifies under oath that the paid debt is just, according to his calculations [accounts].

Contra

defendant Arien Symense is sentenced to give a receipt to complt and to pay the balance of the debt.

Complainant Bart Sybrantse demands payment of Lowys Dubo for freight of cattle, to the amount of 7 schepel of wheat.

Contra

defendant Lowys Dubo says he has paid his share. But whereas he defendant acknowledges having ordered the cattle of Bart therefore upon deliberation the defendant is sentenced to pay.

Complainant Bart Sybrantsen demands payment of Harmen Jansen for passage of himself, wife and children from the Manethans to the Hesopes, 16 guilders in zeewant. Further 8 guilders paid to Mr. Poulus, besides half a schepel of peas.

Contra

defendant Harmen Jansen acknowledges the debt, and is sentenced to pay, before his departure, to Bart Sybrantsen 24 guilders in zeewant and a half schepel of peas.

Complainant Geertruyt Andrissen demands of Gerrit Van Campen payment of 2 schepel of wheat and 11 guilders in zeewant

Contra

defendant, Gerrit Van Campen, having been heard in